

LOST CITY AT SUN CITY - SUN CITY, SOUTH AFRICA

LOST CITY AT SUN CITY

The Lost City at Sun City is nestled in a man-made rain-forest which covers over 45 acres. The resort incorporates freshwater aquariums, lakes, waterfalls and cascades, and the Valley of Waves Waterpark including a spectacular 70,000 square foot wave pool capable of producing 8 foot waves suitable for surfing competitions, a children's activity pool, and 5 water slides. The resort also features an adult activity pool and an Olympic sized formal pool, eight major fountains, and other visual water attractions.

CLOWARD H<sub>2</sub>O provided complete design and engineering in addition to construction administration for all water features on the project site.
