

HILTON WAIKOLOA VILLAGE - KOHALA COAST, HAWAII

HILTON WAIKOLOA VILLAGE

The Hilton Waikoloa Village is located on a nine-mile stretch of the Kohala coast. This 62-acre resort offers a 4-acre swimming and snorkeling lagoon, interactive dolphin experience and a twenty five thousand square foot spa. In addition, guests enjoy a three-quarter mile long salt water boat way river with waterfalls and cascades, three major pools with decorative waterfalls and cascades, two major fresh water bird and fish exhibits, water slides, and saltwater lagoon.

CLOWARD H₂O was commissioned to do full design and engineering of the water features along with on-site construction administration.

